

ECHOES FROM THE LODGE ROOMS

ELKS.
Flag Day services of Norwich lodge, similar to those which will be held by every lodge of the Elks throughout the country, will be held on the lawn in front of the home at 7 o'clock on the evening of Tuesday, June 14th. There will be a concert by the Elks band, from 8:30 to 9:30, when the regular ceremonies will start. District Deputy Joseph Mulvey, P. E. R., of New Haven lodge, will render the Elks' Tribute to the Flag, and the principal speaker will be the Rev. Joseph King, of Milford, Conn. Father King is a Norwich boy, a graduate of the Norwich Free Academy, and a young man who has made a name for himself as a speaker for the Elks at their flag and memorial services and during the Liberty loan campaigns. Brother Frank Murry, of Norwich lodge, will be one of the soloists.

New London lodge will hold its Flag Day exercises Sunday evening, June 13, in the Lyceum theater. The exercises are open to the public and it is expected the seating capacity will be taxed. The patriotic address will be delivered by Grand Master of Providence, The Elks' Tribute to the Flag will be delivered by Grand Trustee Charles P. J. McCue of Cambridge, Mass. Past Exalted Ruler Daniel M. Cronin of New London will give the history of the flag.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS.
More than 500 cities and towns in the United States were covered by the Knights of Columbus traveling lecturers during the past year, according to a report made public by William J. McGinley, supreme secretary of the order. All of the lectures were conducted on the open forum basis and 11,400 questions were directed at the speakers by members of the audiences seeking information.

Although a majority of the lectures were on subjects tending to slay bolshevism, radicalism, and religious bigotry, it is announced that 32 per cent of the questions asked have been questions seeking to know the power of God's existence. Moral questions came next, and then economic and then political. The questions on economic lines were the hardest for the lecturers to satisfy, according to Secretary McGinley.

It is also announced that in recognition of the services rendered to the French government by the order a street in the city of Paris has been named the Avenue of the Knights of Columbus.

ODD FELLOWS.
Both local lodges, U. N. 11, and Shetucket, No. 27, I. O. O. F., held their regular business meeting this week. U. N. lodge met Monday evening and Shetucket lodge met Tuesday evening. The usual routine business was transacted.

The members of both lodges and the members of Hope Rebekah Lodge, No. 21, I. O. O. F., are planning to attend the Odd Fellows' memorial service to be held Sunday morning at the Fitchville church. Joseph J. Fields, past grand, is in charge of the transportation. The members of the three lodges will take the 8:30 Yantic car from Franklin square Sunday morning and will be met by automobiles at Yantic which will transport them to the Fitchville in time for the service which opens at 10:30 o'clock.

MYSTIC SHRINE.
A number of Norwich Shriners attended the twenty-fifth anniversary ceremonial session of Sphinx temple, Ancient Arabic Order, No. 10, of Mystic Shrine, in Hartford, last week.

A street parade preceded the ceremonial session. Governor Everett J. Lake who recently crossed the hot sands and was initiated into the mysteries of the Mystic Shrine, rode in the parade. In the parade were several bands and drum corps. The program included a review at the municipal building by Mayor Newton C. Brainard and other city officials.

In regard to the formation of the temple 25 years ago the Hartford Times says:

A meeting to consider the formation of a temple of the Mystic Shrine in this part of the state was held at the Masonic temple, this city, Feb. 26, 1896.

There were nineteen members of Pyramid temple of Bridgeport, then the only temple in the state, present. Rial S. Peck was made chairman and James H. Jarman, secretary of the meeting. Mr. Peck, Charles B. Andrus and Halley B. Philbrick were appointed a committee to visit Pyramid temple and notify that body of the proposed "secession."

The proposition was opposed by the members of Pyramid and, as a counter proposition, they suggested that Pyramid temple be relocated in Hartford. This proposal went down to defeat and it was voted to allow the Hartford nobles to go ahead and organize a temple.

At a meeting, March 6, 1896, the name "Sphinx" was selected, as being in line with the requirement that all temples of the order must bear Arabic names.

The dispensation for Sphinx temple was granted April 9, 1896. Rial S. Peck was elected the first illustrious potentate; Sidney E. Clarke, recorder; Alfred Spencer, Jr., treasurer; Frank D. May, director.

The charter was granted by the Imperial council, June 4, 1896, at its annual session in Cleveland, Ohio. Jurisdiction was given the temple over the territory embraced by Washington commandery, Knights Templar of Hartford; Columbia commandery of Norwich; Clark commandery of Middletown; and St. John's commandery of Willimantic, and concurrent jurisdiction with St. Elmo commandery of Meriden except the town of Berlin, which is under the exclusive jurisdiction of Sphinx temple.

The first meeting under the dispensation was held April 24, 1896, with forty-three nobles present. The first meeting under the charter was held July 13. At the end of the first year the new temple had 415. With the 153 candidates received today the membership is 2,107.

Charles E. Shelton succeeded Sidney E. Clarke as recorder at the end of the first year. Mr. Shelton continued until January 1, 1900, when he was succeeded by Richard P. Martin, still continuing as recorder. Mr. Spencer has been the treasurer since organization.

The potentates have been Rial S. Peck, who followed 1896 by James H. Jarman, William G. Simmons, Stanley R. Bosworth, Joseph E. Root, Edward W. Pratt, Edward Muhl, John T. Henderson, George W. Klett, William W. Frayer, William F. Loomis, Walter S. Garber, Henry S. Strong, Thomas W. Morgan, Henry G. Toothaker, Clayton W. Rowley, Charles W. Houston, Horace W. Eddy.

The present year under illustrious Potentate Otis J. Hart has been a very busy one. Including the 153 candidates today, there are 225 new members to date.

The membership includes many present and past state officials and others prominent in public and business affairs. Three strong adjuncts have the temple. The oldest is the famous Sphinx temple band, founded in 1893 by Director Frank D. May, with thirteen members. The late J. Oscar Casey was its first leader. In 1899 Thomas W. Morgan was made leader of the band and appointed musical director, a position he has filled since.

The Sphinx Temple Arab patrol was organized in 1907. The late Robert M. Ponzig was the first captain. William P. Powell is the present captain. The late Edward W. Alexander was captain for several years until his death in October, 1919.

The third branch is the Shrine club which occupies the old Day residence on Spring street, which has been refitted for club use.

SPANISH WAR VETERANS.
Charles N. Burdick, past commander of Griswold Camp No. 6, U. S. W. V., this city, was elected senior vice commander of the Connecticut state department of the U. S. W. V., at the state convention held in Waterbury last week.

Among those who attended the convention from Griswold Camp were Charles

CHARLES N. BURDICK,
(Elected Senior Vice Commander.)

N. Burdick, Anson R. Grover, Ivar Olson, George A. Turner and E. U. G. Barker. John E. Quinn of Stamford was elected state commander and James R. Welch was elected junior vice commander.

The auxiliary to the Spanish War Veterans held their state convention at the same time. Mrs. Charles N. Burdick of this city was elected a member of the department council of administration of the state auxiliary.

MOOSE.
Norwich Lodge, No. 350, Loyal Order of Moose, is going in a body to New London today (Saturday) to take part in the big parade in that city this afternoon in connection with the state field day of the order. A number of the local Moose are entered in the various athletic events which will also be held today.

The convention was opened at 10:30 Friday morning, the entire morning session being taken up with examination of credentials of delegates and routine business, consisting of reports of officers and committees.

Mayor E. Frank Morgan welcomed the visiting Moose and extended to them the freedom of New London. George H. Rayner, dictator of the New London lodge and state vice dictator, responded in a few well chosen words in behalf of the state association.

The reports of the officers showed that the order had an increase of 2,000 members during the past year, bringing the total membership up to about 15,000 in Connecticut. There are 25 lodges in the state and all are reported as in excellent condition numerically and financially.

It was expected that Secretary of Labor James J. Davis, head of the national order, and Governor Everett J. Lake, who were invited, would be present at the field day Saturday but both were unable to attend and sent regrets.

However, Thomas O'Donnell, former mayor of Kansas City and one of the governors of Massachusetts, will be in New London for the field day. William J. Bennett of Newark, N. J., district supervisor and P. J. Fitzgerald of Hartford, deputy district supervisor, who made his headquarters in New London for several months, will also be in attendance.

At 7 o'clock Friday the state officers, delegates and membership in general held a banquet at Ocean Beach. There was no formal program of exercises, the banquet being followed by a dance.

The field day today will bring several hundred Moose to New London from all parts of the state. The program will include a parade and track meet. The parade will take place at 1 o'clock, daylight saving time, and form in Main street, the line of march being up Main street, to Williams, to Broad, down State, Bank and over Town Hill to Woodland grove, Waterford where the track meet will be held.

The track meet at Woodland Grove will be one of the big attractions of the field day. There are several events which are open to the high school athletes, shot and all local amateur. These consist of the 100-yard dash, 440-yard run, 880-yard run, running high jump, 12-pound shot put, shoe race for girls and obstacle race for boys. The last two are for boys and girls under 18 years of age. The mile relay run, which was one of the events for Moose only has been thrown open. The teams to consist of four men each. The special event will be the tug of war for local factory teams.

DAUGHTERS OF VETERANS.
Clara Barton tent, No. 7, had the initiatory degree worked on one candidate at its regular meeting Tuesday evening at the Buckingham Memorial. The work was done by the degree team. Sister Lena Pukallus presided at the meeting, which closed in the usual form with salute to the flag and the singing of America.

PATRONS OF HUSBANDRY.
Wednesday night was Flora's night at the meeting of Norwich Grange, No. 172, and the lecture's hour was in charge of Flora (Mrs. Herman Pukallus), who had prepared a very interesting program as follows:

Selection by an orchestra, Mrs. Nellie Horne, piano; John M. Swaban, cornet; Alwyn Kampf, violin; song by the members; a reading, The Volunteer Organist, by Mrs. Frances Spaulding; vocal solo, by Miss Charlotte Thorow, who responded to an encore. Interpretive dances, Memories of the Past and The Elks' Dance, were given very efficiently by Miss Marie Atterbury, quartette, Mrs. H. L. Richardson, Miss Boyne, Mr.

Gray and William Roshin in two selections. Mr. Jacob Gallup read a very interesting paper on Wild Flowers in Winter. Ice cream was served by the feast committee. There was an unusually large attendance and the most interesting meeting the Grange has had for a long time. It was voted to invite the degree teams of Pachaug grange to work 30 four degrees for the grange in September. It was announced Fomona will meet next Thursday with Pachaug Grange. The hall was beautifully decorated with flowers as each member who came brought a floral offering which will afterwards be sent to the sick members and to the hospital.

LADIES' AUXILIARIES, A. O. E.
The regular meeting of Ladies' Auxiliary, Division No. 24, A. O. E., was held Thursday evening at the Buckingham Memorial with a large attendance. A whist followed the business session. There were twenty tables and the prizes were awarded as follows: White commandery First Mrs. B. Dwyer; second, Mrs. Higgins; Blue commandery First Mrs. A. J. Wholey; second, T. J. Leary.

The scores were Misses Alice Lee Katherine Firestone, Harvey. Refreshments were served after the whist.

SACHEM CHAPTER, O. E. S.
Plans are under way for an important event Tuesday evening, when Sachem chapter, No. 57, O. E. S., is to entertain the worthy matron, Mrs. Hattie R. Stickley, of Newington Junction, and her associate grand officers, who will pay their official visit to the local chapter. Supper is to be served at 6 o'clock at the Community House, on Church street, after which the gathering will adjourn to Odd Fellows' hall, Main street, for the business session. Between 250 and 300 are expected to attend, including visitors from all the surrounding chapters of the Eastern Star.

EAGLES.
Norwich Aerle, No. 567, F. O. E., held its regular meeting Monday, John De Bruner, worthy president, presided. 815 applications were acted on. The aerle has started a life membership contest, ending October 15th. The worthy president appointed various committees for the ensuing term, finance committee, stock committee, delinquent committee. After the meeting a social session was enjoyed by the members.

The custom of referring to the time immediately after one's wedding as a honeymoon descended from the ancient tribes of Central Europe. Newly married couples drank and served to their friends a wine made from honey gathered during the first thirty days (or lunar month) after the performance of the wedding ceremony.
